Women In Greater Western Sydney

The aim of this paper is to provide an overview of working age women (that is, women aged 15 years and over) in Greater Western Sydney, one of the fastest growing regions in NSW. The paper explores 2016 Census data from the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS), as well as other datasets where relevant.

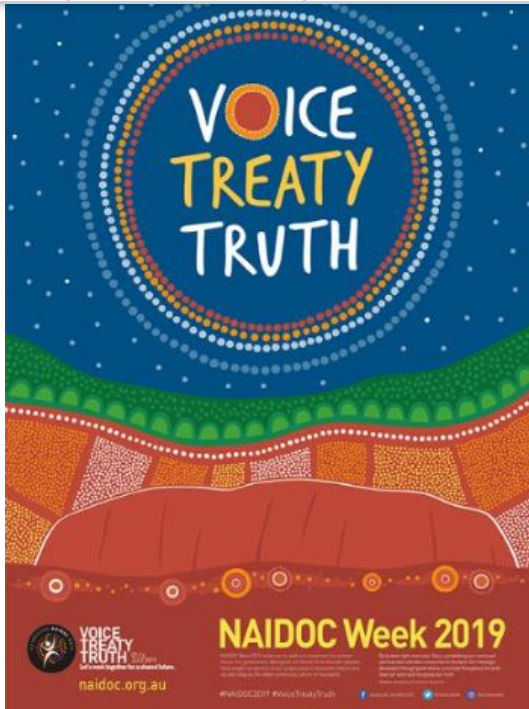

The topics explored include population and age, relationships, children, housing and homelessness, cultural diversity, Indigenous status, education, work and volunteering, need for assistance, health and lifestyle, and violence against women.
